Two friends were walking through the desert. During some point of the journey, they had an argument and one friend slapped the other one in the face. The one who got slapped was hurt, but without saying anything, wrote in the sand: "Today my best friend slapped me in the face." They kept on walking, until they found an oasis, where they decided to take a bath. The one who had been slapped got stuck in the mire and started drowning, but the friend saved him. After he recovered from the near drowning, he wrote on a stone: "Today my best friend saved my life."

The friend who had slapped and saved his best friend asked him, "After I hurt you, you wrote in the sand and now, you write on a stone, why?"

The friend replied, when someone hurts us we should write it down in sand, where the winds of forgiveness can erase it away. But, when someone does something good for us, we must engrave it in stone where no wind can ever erase it.

During this month we are supporting one of our own SMA Fathers. He is Fr. Donal Fennessey.

Fr. Donal is 78 years of age and still working in the very difficult world of Northern Nigeria. The circumstance of Northern Nigeria helps us to keep in prayer Fr. Luigi SMA who is still detained by extremists in Niger.

✠ LITURGY OF THE WORD ✠

FIRST READING Isaiah 6:1-8

A reading from the prophet Isaiah In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord seated on a high throne; his train filled the sanctuary; above him stood seraphs, each one with six wings. And they cried out one to another in this way,
"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.
His glory fills the whole earth."
The foundations of the threshold shook with the voice of the one who cried out, and the Temple was filled with smoke.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 10th. February 2019

God in Christ chooses his apostles, men whom the world would think weak, maybe unsuitable, these are the ones he wants for himself.
We are all called by God even though we may feel unworthy in his sight.
That in itself is a sign of God's grace: it is the way to his kingdom.

I said:

"What a wretched state I am in!
I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips and I live among a people of unclean lips and my eyes have looked at the King,
the Lord of hosts."

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding in his hand a live coal which he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs.
With this he touched my mouth and said:
"See now, this has touched your lips,
your sin is taken away,
your iniquity is purged."

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying:
"Whom shall I send? Who will be our messenger?"

I answered, "Here I am, send me."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 137: 1-5-7-8

R. Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

1. I thank you, Lord, with all my heart, you have heard the words of my mouth.
Before the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple. [R]
2. I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called, you answered:
you increased the strength of my soul. [R]
3. All earth's kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth.
They shall sing of the Lord's ways;
"How great is the glory of the Lord!" [R] 4. You stretch out your hand and save me, your hand will do all things for me.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands. [R]

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

*A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians *Shorter form (italics) 15:3-8. 11.
Brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, the gospel that you received and in which you are firmly established; because the gospel will save you only if you keep believing exactly what I preached to you - believing anything else

Well then, "in the first place, I taught you what I had been taught myself, namely that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures; that he was buried; and that he was raised to life on the third day, in accordance with the scriptures; that he appeared first to Cephas and secondly to the Twelve. Next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died; then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; and last of all he appeared to me too; it was as though I was born when no one expected it."

I am the least of the apostles; in fact, since I persecuted the Church of God I hardly deserve the name apostle; but by God's grace that is what I am, and the grace that he gave me has not been fruitless. On the contrary, I, or rather the grace of God that is with me have worked harder than any of the others; "but what matters is that I preach what they preach, and this is what you all believed".

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Follow me, says the Lord, and I will make you fishers of men.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 5:1-11

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke Jesus was standing one day by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing round him listening to the word of God, when he caught sight of two boats close to the bank.
The fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats - it was Simon's - and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and pay out your nets for a catch." "Master," Simon replied "we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will pay out the nets." And when they had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear, so they signalled to their companions in the other boats to come and help them; when these came,

they filled the two boats to sinking point.

When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, "Leave me Lord; I am a sinful man." For he and all his companions were completely overcome by the catch they had made; so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. But Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on it is men you will catch." Then, bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him.
The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

All bow for following two lines:
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

O Lord our God, who once established these created things to sustain us in our frailty, grant, we pray, that they may become for us now the Sacrament of eternal life.

we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.
