THE MESSAGE OF TODAY'S GOSPEL.

The parable brings home to us that, having been forgiven ourselves, there is no human alternative for us but to become forgiving of others; in a nutshell, having been forgiven, we must forgive; otherwise we are lacking in common humanity, not to speak of the values of the Gospel.

All this has a very real application in church life, for the number of people who turn away from the church where they have not found forgiveness is legion.

INTERNATIONAL DAY

Early in the morning and listening to weather forecasts all the indications were that we could be in for a wet, wet day. We dodged the rain and we were treated to a special day as a parish. I would like to take the opportunity to thank those members of our parish who helped in the hosting of the day. If the concept of the Family of Parishes means anything the diocese has something to go on.

The response of the different nationalities who participated, the response of the many young people who came on the day, the amount of food that was available for people to enjoy at no cost, the number of charities that came to be part of the day, great to see the community Gardaí with us, the number of people who probably never set foot on our church grounds. All I want to say is, well done as a parish. You've done yourself proud!

Fr. Michael

Always we hope that someone else has the answer.

Some other place will be better,

Some other time will turn out well.

This is it.

No one else has the answer.

No other place will be better,

And it has already turned out.

At the centre of your being you have the answer;

you know who you are and you know what you want.

✠ LITURGY OF THE WORD ✠

FIRST READING Ecclesiasticus 27: 30 - 28:7

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus
Resentment and anger, these are foul things, and both are found with the sinner. He who exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord, who keeps strict account of sin. Forgive your neighbour the hurt he does you, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven. If a man nurses anger against another, can he then demand compassion from the Lord?

TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Through Christ's own blood we have been forgiven. We did not earn this forgiveness - it is God's gift to us. We in return must forgive in the same way - not with strings attached, not once only, but unconditionally, freely and always. 17th September 2023

Showing no pity for a man like himself, can he then plead for his own sins? Mere creature of flesh, he cherishes resentment; who will forgive him his sins? Remember the last things, and stop hating, remember dissolution and death, and live by the commandments. Remember the commandments, and do not bear your neighbour ill-will; remember the covenant of the Most High, and overlook the offence.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 102)

R. The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.

1. My soul, give thanks to the Lord, all my being, bless his holy name.
My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings. (R)
2. It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion. (R)
3. His wrath will come to an end; he will not be angry for ever.
He does not treat us according to our sins nor repay us according to our faults. (R)
4. For as the heavens are high above the earth so strong is his love for those who fear him, As far as the east is from the west so far does he remove our sins. (R)

SECOND READING Romans 14: 7 - 9

A reading from St. Paul's letter to the Romans

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! I give you a new commandment: love one another, just as I have loved you, says the Lord. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Matthew 18: 21 - 35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Peter went up to Jesus and said, 'Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times. 'And so the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants. When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents; but he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt. At this, the servant threw himself down at his master's feet. "Give me time" he said "and I will pay the whole sum." And the servant's master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt. Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii; and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him. "Pay what you owe me" he said. His fellow servant fell at his feet and implored him, saying, "Give me time and I will pay you." But the other would not agree; on the contrary, he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him. Then the master sent for him. "You wicked servant," he said "I cancelled all that debt of yours when you appealed to me. Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow servant just as I had pity on you?" And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt. And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God,
